How to use this pack

This pack turns good intentions into a finished household plan. It does not replace official advice — it gives you one tidy place to write down what your household will actually do.

Two ways to fill it in

On screen: open the PDF in a reader that supports forms (Adobe Acrobat Reader, Apple Preview, most browsers' built-in viewers), type into the boxes and save a copy. Everything stays on your device — nothing is sent to us.

On paper: print it at 100% ("actual size") on A4. Print the fridge card and wallet cards on thicker paper if you can.

A good order to work through it

1. Household at a glance — who lives here and who needs extra help.
2. Emergency contacts — 112 is filled in — add your national numbers; add your own people.
3. Meeting points and out-of-area contact — agree them together.
4. Utilities and shut-offs — walk round your home and find the stopcock, meter and fuse box.
5. The plans: power cut, water, storm and flood — tick what you already have in place.
6. Records: documents index, kit inventory, food rotation, pets, children, care needs.
7. Print the fridge card and wallet cards. Put the pack somewhere everyone knows.
8. Put the next review date in your calendar (we suggest the weekend the clocks change).

Keep it private

Some pages hold personal information (dates of birth, medicines, account numbers). Store the filled-in copy like you would a passport. Never write down PINs, passwords or full bank card numbers — this pack does not need them.
